

So if there is any encouragement in Christ, any comfort from love, any participation in the Spirit, any affection and sympathy, complete my joy by being of the same mind, having the same love, being in full accord and of one mind. Do nothing from selfish ambition or conceit, but in humility count others more significant than yourselves. Let each of you look not only to his own interests, but also to the interests of others. Have this mind among yourselves, which is yours in Christ Jesus, who, though he was in the form of God, did not count equality with God a thing to be grasped, but emptied himself, by taking the form of a servant, being born in the likeness of men. And being found in human form, he humbled himself by becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross. Therefore God has highly exalted him and bestowed on him the name that is above every name, so that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Therefore, my beloved, as you have always obeyed, so now, not only as in my presence but much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling, for it is God who works in you, both to will and to work for his good pleasure. Do all things without grumbling or disputing, that you may be blameless and innocent, children of God without blemish in the midst of a crooked and twisted generation, among whom you shine as lights in the world, holding fast to the word of life, so that in the day of Christ I may be proud that I did not run in vain or labor in vain. Even if I am to be poured out as a drink offering upon the sacrificial offering of your faith, I am glad and rejoice with you all. Likewise you also should be glad and rejoice with me.

Week 1

Philippians 2:1-2

Week 1: Day 1

Parent Instructions

Read Philippians 2:1-2

So if there is any encouragement in Christ, any comfort from love, any participation in the Spirit, any affection and sympathy, complete my joy by being of the same mind, having the same love, being in full accord and of one mind.

Show

Use the diagram to the right to show your child how to properly form the letter on a large whiteboard or chalkboard. If you do not have these, use a large piece of paper.

Practice Tracing

Have your child practice tracing both the upper and lowercase letters on the following page. Pay close attention to their formation of letters and remind them of proper formation as necessary.

Color

Color the large letter and the images that start with the letter. Talk about each of the images and the sounds A makes.

Pray

End your lessons each day this week in prayer asking the Lord to teach you and your child how to put the needs of others ahead of your own needs.

Practice tracing the letter.

Week 1: Day 2

Parent Instructions

Read Philippians 2:1-2

So if there is any encouragement in Christ, any comfort from love, any participation in the Spirit, any affection and sympathy, complete my joy by being of the same mind, having the same love, being in full accord and of one mind.

Define: Affection

Affection: Affection is a feeling of love. When you have affection for someone, you want the best for them and desire to please them. (Write the vocabulary word on paper or a marker board for your child. Have your child locate this week's letter.)

Trace and Write

Have your child practice tracing the upper and lowercase letters. Then, have them practice writing the letter on their own. Praise them for their good work, and show them where they can improve!

Cut-and-Paste

Complete the cut-and-paste activity, putting the letters in order.

Pray

End your lessons each day this week in prayer asking the Lord to teach you and your child how to put the needs of others ahead of your own needs.

Practice tracing the letters and then practice writing the letters on your own.

A is for apple.
